THE MATERIALISATION OF DREAMS ON THE POLITICAL FRONT IN MAURITIUS

January – June 2014

You all know here (in Mauritius) that the Mauritian Militant Movement (MMM) made a political alliance with the Mauritian Socialist Movement (MSM) in the year 2011 if I am not mistaken, and they got together to make a remake of the political alliance they did back in the year 2000.

They got together so as to denounce the current government (PTr & PMSD) on the subjects on all current scandals, frauds, corruption, theft, rape and so on, whereby they (PTr & PMSD) lost their credibility. The overall population (of Mauritius) is completely sick of them and with the coming general elections coming in the year 2015, at that time (months back) the remake MMM/MSM promised to do a cleaning up and would have gained victory. There have been many meetings they held to denounce the current government.

Months back, all was well in the “remake 2000” but Allah back then showed me in a dream on 07 January 2014 that a MMM/PTr flag was floating. When I related the dream to my family in the morning and also to my disciples here in Mauritius, there are some who told me, no, impossible that the leader of the MMM to do an alliance with the PTr of Navin Ramgoolam, and therefore I remained quiet (on the subject).

Afterwards, what did we witness?

In the beginning, the two leaders MMM/MSM were celebrating their birthdays together, photos published in the newspapers. Each of them is feeding cake to his comrade and praising one another. The next day, 15 April 2014, problems within MMM/MSM are exposed. Wednesday 16 April 2014, the militants (members of the MMM – the population) revolts against their leader of the MMM, labelling him all sorts of ugly names to manifest their anger when the latter annulled the 1st of May Meeting despite that since long, posters and banderols have been posted everywhere around the country to mobilize the population to come for the 1st of May Meeting. And then, out of the blue, the leader of the MMM announces his separation from the MSM. All Mauritians were shocked by this and many of them addressed this subject on the private radios to demonstrate their anger and non-compliance with the way the leader of the MMM acted.

And then on Thursday 17 April 2014, the Leader of the Opposition and the MMM goes to meet with the Prime Minister Dr. Navin Ramgoolam, on the apparent subject of Electoral Reform.

Days back, each of them were at the throat of each other and around 80% of the population of Mauritius wanted the defeat of the current bullying and scandalous government in the next election. It was the Leader of the Opposition himself (while also the leader of the MMM) who used to denounce all these frauds and scandals etc.

On Thursday 17 April 2014 itself, before the camera and all press people, the Leader of the Opposition and MMM shook hands with the Prime Minister, discussing with loads of smile for some three hours. The majority of Mauritians were angry at the Leader of the Opposition and the MMM, and last year 2013, in the intervals of those months January-December, the majority of people were praising him and praying for him and now this year, it is only insults. If those insults could strike a person dead, then he would have died with those insults. And the media published that an alliance has already been signed between the PTr and the MMM.

What I wanted to show you is that Allah the Exalted shows to His Chosen Servant; he (through Allah) has profound knowledge of the unseen (Ilm-e-Ghayb). Allah has shown His servant what shall happen in the future, at such a time when it was inconceivable to the people that such an event shall happen when all was going well and normal (between the parties forming the 2000 remake). Therefore, the things which Allah the Exalted shows to His Chosen Servant, and when he announces this (to the people), therefore, this must be accomplished, even if one does not witness it on the spot, but the accomplishment of those prophecies can take its time to be manifested. This is the promise made by Allah to His Chosen Servant. – Extract from the Friday Sermon of Hazrat Khalifatullah Munir A. Azim (atba) * 13 June 2014

July – September 2014

In his Friday Sermon of 13 June 2014 like presented above, the Khalifatullah Hazrat Munir A. Azim (atba) has already explained how Allah informed him in a dream of the forthcoming and now realised alliance between the MMM and the PTr political parties in Mauritius. Since then, Allah has shown him more dreams on this subject which indicate clearly the actualisation of the alliance which verily happened recently on 20 September 2014, when both parties signed the finalised agreement.

On 04 July 2014, a “Transitional Provision Bill” was presented in the Assembly on the Electoral Reform to which both the MMM and Labour Party (PTr) shared a common understanding.

From July to 06 September 2014, after some “on” and “off” scenarios on the subject of MMM-PTr Alliance, both parties have now stepped forward officially and on paper to establish once again the basis of trust not only between the two parties but also as one vis-à-vis the Mauritian nation.

The leaders and executive and non-executive members (the politburo and delegates) of both parties voted in majority for the realisation of the alliance. Both leaders have assured the population that united, they are in for a great historical step forward for the shaping of a modern democratic Mauritius. The MMM organised their assembly of delegates on the 14 September 2014 to which Hazrat Khalifatullah (atba) was present upon the invitation of some members of the MMM Party to watch the proceedings.

In the humble opinion of Huzur (atba)... he is of the opinion that the alliance announced is a good thing but it all depends now on whether the leaders of both parties shall respect their engagements. He hopes that the agreement between both leaders and parties is in the best interest of the people of Mauritius! They must respect the terms of the agreement and fulfil their given words/engagements. If all goes as per the established (transparent) plan, then it is the country which shall benefit from it. There shall be better developments. The PTR (Labour Party) must admit that without an alliance with the MMM for the next general election, the situation shall be very difficult for them. They risk losing the elections if they went alone and without the support of the MMM, as its government has been the talks of the country because of its scandals, fraud and corruption. Thus having the leader of the MMM now as Prime Minister, there is the hope that within this circle he would be able to do a good cleaning both inside and outside. Both leaders have agreed to make Mauritius a second republic and there is the plan to make Navinchandra Ramgoolam as President with some additional powers.

Therefore, it is the hope of the Mauritians that this alliance if they win the elections shall bring a “renouveau” (new lease of life) in all sectors and ministries, bringing forward such firm propositions to decrease the rate of criminality in the country, eliminate poverty and to combat corruption and decrease the number of unemployment.

Let us pray that Allah decides the best government to manage Mauritius for the welfare of all Mauritians. Insha-Allah.
