

MESSAGE OF THE KHALIFATULLAH

Hazrat Munir A. Azim (Atba)

To the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam Kerala/ Tamil Nadu

Eid-Ul-Adha Mubarak

UNITED FOR THE CAUSE OF ALLAH

Dearest brothers, sisters and children,
My beloved disciples of the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam, Kerala - India, Assalamoualaikum Warahmatullah Wabarakaatuhu.

It gives me great pleasure to jot this message for you today the 06 September 2016 for your blessed Eid-ul-Adha programme on 11 September 2016 to 12 September 2016 at our Mosque Nur'ul Islam in Mathra. By the immense grace of Allah, you have all recognised the Khalifatullah of this era in the advent of this humble self and many of you are being very dynamic in spreading that good news to the rest of India and the world at large. May Allah bless you in these initiatives and illumine the hearts of truth-seekers and others to recognise, accept and fully integrate the ranks of Allah and His Messenger of this era. Ameen.

You need to realise my disciples, that to enable the reformation of the world and to guide them to Allah, you all need to converge as one solid body of Muslims, true Muslims because the unification of Muslims shall become a reality only when those who declare that they believe in Allah and all tenets of Islam, as well as believe in the Messenger of their era strive to do this blessed work as a united body themselves. Remember ISLAM is our religion. Allah has enabled the creation of Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam only as the vehicle, as the means to enable the reunification of all Muslims. Remember, divided we are nothing, but united we are everything because as Allah is One, He loves unity among all His true servants, those who sincerely declare with their tongues that they believe and they act also with sincerity on their words and remain firm up till their last breath on earth.

Remember my disciples that Allah has chosen you to have faith in the Khalifatullah of your age, and thus along with this belief, you need to make all efforts possible to reform your lives as true Muslims so that you may become a role model for others to follow. For example, in my series of Friday sermons on Jihad which I recently did, I have talked about those who say that they are Muslims but whose actions are not those of Muslims at all. They use the Quran precepts in the wrong way, and thus contribute to portray Islam, God Forbid, as a most abused of faiths.

To say that one has recognised the Khalifatullah of the age is one thing, but to act on this belief by moulding your lives in the essence of Islam is another. I have come to guide people to Allah, not to me, but nevertheless, the Quran and Sunnah stipulates that Muslims should follow and obey Allah and His Messenger. By the word Messenger or Prophet, Allah means the Holy Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) and also as the Quran is the living word of Allah and will endure till the Day of Judgement, then the Quran shall always remain the actuality in the lives of all Muslims in every era, and most especially in the time of a Messenger of Allah. Thus, whenever Allah raises His Messenger, the Quran becomes all the more alive and the verses of the Holy Quran tallies with His life, as well as the lives of the people around him – be them believers, hypocrites or disbelievers.

Thus, the Quran becomes once again the vehicle, the means for the guidance of man, only if the people truly desire with all their heart to make the Quran the guide of their lives. And, as Islam and the Quran is the final religion and laws regulating the life of man respectively, then each Messenger of Allah who comes after the advent of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) is universal in aspect and comes in obedience to Allah and the Holy Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) and the Holy Quran to guide the people back to Allah, back to the right path.

Therefore, those who claim that they have believed in me should comply with the tenets of Islam and mould their lives according to the lives of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) and the greatest of all believers, that is, the close companions of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). I know it will not be easy for you at first. I understand that human beings are very weak and to rid themselves of these weaknesses is not easy. It takes time, but bear in mind my dearest disciples that we don't have time, and we should not waste time in the great mission which Allah has given us. When you have bonded your hearts and souls to Allah and to me, the Khalifatullah of your age and given the oath of allegiance, it is like you have sold your being to Allah and the Messenger, and thus, you should strive with your utmost might to comply to your promises and sacrifice yourselves for the cause of Allah.

Allah says in the Holy Quran :

“Verily, Allah (God) has bought from the believers their selves and their possessions in exchange for the gift of Paradise; they fight in the way of Allah; they kill, and are killed; that is a promise binding upon Allah in the Torah, and the Gospel, and the Quran; and who fulfills his covenant truer than Allah? So rejoice in the bargain you have made with Him; that is the mighty triumph.” (At-Taubah 9: 111).

Your time is precious, and every second which you devote to Allah and His cause shall NEVER be in vain. Remember that this world is only a temporary abode. We are only travellers of few days in this world and our true abode is to be near to Allah, nearest to His presence, to His throne. More than that, you should strive to make your hearts the dwelling place of Allah, the real Mosque of devotion, a real Ka'aba Shareef. Remember when Allah is with you, everything is with you, but when Allah is not with you, nothing is with you.

To say that you believe is really easy but to act on that belief and to sacrifice for that belief is another. Fortunate are those who for the sake of Allah disregard the faults and weaknesses of their brethren in faith and come together and give precious advices to each other so that as a consolidated front, they act as a real and unbreakable shield for Islam, for Allah, for the Holy Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) and in your era, this humble self the Khalifatullah, Muhyiuddin, Amir'ul Mumineen.

When Allah has made me your leader, your guide, He has also reserved trials in faith for you, and also the greatest of good rewards. Fortunate are those who accept to strive to be steadfast in His faith, who mould their lives according to the divine instructions, according to the Quran and the precious advices of their God-given chosen Messenger and Guide of this era.

I commend the Deen works and tabligh initiatives of Mukarram Amir Jamaluddin Sahib, Mukarram Amir Thahir Sahib, Mukarram Fazil Jamal Sahib, Janab Hariz Sahib, Janab Salim Sahib, Janab Shamsuddin Sahib of Palakkad, Janab Shamsuddin of Kodungallur, Janab Sulfikar Ali Sahib, Janab Azim Ahmad Sahib, Janab Rasheed Sahib and I remember all those of my disciples who have health problems, may Allah give you steadfastness in these times and help you to overcome your handicaps and help the cause of Allah in whatever way you can, be it in translations, financial sacrifices and tabligh ventures, according to your capacities and abilities.

Bear in mind that even one rupee that you save for the cause of Allah yields many rewards. The more you contribute, according to your means, you more Allah shall be happy with you. Help the cause of Allah, and Allah shall help you, shall make your life better. Remember, Allah tries hard those whom He loves best. Therefore fortunate are those of you who despite trials and tribulations in your lives, you do not forget your promises and engagement to Allah and fulfil your duties to Allah and the cause of Allah and His Jamaat – the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam – in the best of ways.

I urge the rest of my disciples – the fact that I have not mentioned your names does not mean that you are out of my heart, thoughts and prayers. No. On the contrary, my prayers are doubled and even trebled for you so that Allah blesses you with such opportunities to serve His cause in the best of ways. I pray all the more for you so that Allah may give you the blessings and abilities to give the most out of you so that you may accede to the presence of Allah and His satisfaction. Speaking of which, I urge the ladies also to give their best to help the cause of Islam, and the Divine Manifestation of this era. Continue with your translations works. I invite you to contribute articles and translations in your languages, as well as in English if you can to propagate the truth to the people of the world.

Women have a special place in the Present Divine Manifestation and Islam as a whole. The value of a girl and woman is inestimable. The contribution they make to the cause of Islam is precious, priceless. I urge all my female disciples, young and old to devote your time to help the cause of Islam. Your advices to the men of the Divine Manifestation, your contributions in whatever way you can shall be able to make the cause of Allah in the form of the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam leap further in progress. You are the hope of today and that of tomorrow. Learn from the past – from the examples of the best of women of the religion of Allah – and keep on sewing firm the clothes of the Divine Manifestation, that is, through your prayers, piety and contribution and helping your husbands and fathers and the Jamaat as a whole to enable that unity and prosperity.

All in all, each one of you of my disciples are alive in my heart. Once you have taken the oath of allegiance, you have become close to me, but like I have told you at the beginning, with that oath begins a new life for you wherein Allah enables you the opportunity to mould your lives into those of the best of people so that you may become a role model for others to follow.

The life of my beloved master Hazrat Muhammad (pbuh) and even those of the past prophets and that of Hazrat Massih Ma'ud Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (as) were not easy. They had to deal with many obstacles and one of these obstacles were hypocrites also. I know very well that I am not an exception to the rule, but my dear ones, I am but a giver of glad tidings and warner. I cannot change hearts. Those who integrate the Divine Manifestation, then leave it, unfortunate are they, and even those who say that they are my disciples on their tongues but they do not comply to the Quran and Sunnah as well as to my divinely-sent advices and instructions and they harbour plans to ruin the Divine Manifestation, then Allah shall not help them to destroy His Plan. They shall be annihilated, unless they repent and reform their conducts. I am talking for the present Divine Manifestation from the first moment Allah raised me up till my last breath on this earth. My lifetime on this earth is a Unique and Blessed Era in itself, and those who gain and live to the fullest this blessed Laila-tul-Qadr (Night of Destiny) shall be able to live forever in the love of Allah.

Oh my dearest disciples, don't you want to live forever in the love of Allah ? Then be sincere in your Bai'at and reform yourselves throughout first, for then my dear ones, the light-bearers of Allah, you shall become the niche of the signs and miracles of Allah to others. When they shall take a look at you, they shall see the light of Allah manifesting and they shall see your truthfulness and the truth of our cause clearly, and without any apprehension, they shall integrate the fold of Islam, with a joyful heart. Insha-Allah.

I long to see all my disciples in Kerala, Tamil Nadu and the rest of India and the world as true Muslims, nearest to Allah. I have come to guide you to Allah, to get that special connection with Allah, and thus how happy I shall be to know that my disciples reach to their destination safe and sound with the great blessings of Allah. Insha-Allah. How wonderful will that be. Oh Allah, enable this wish and mission of mine to bear its fruits during my lifetime itself, and also after my departure from this world, and enable my sincere and pure companions, disciples and followers to be the true inheritors of Your favours up till the Last Day. Ameen.

May Allah bless this Eid gathering of yours and enable you to meet more frequently and in unity, unaffected by any kind of evil or doubt or jealousy – save the blessed competition to do more good deeds (Fastabikul Khairaat) – to gain the immense pleasure of Allah and to guide others to obtain the same great favours which you have got in this blessed era of Divine Manifestation. Ameen, Summa Ameen, Ya Rabbul Aalameen.

Remember, the Divine Manifestation, this Jamaat – the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam is pure and is for Allah. Always remain sincere in it so that Allah may be pleased with you, for if not, Allah shall devise His plans to enable righteousness to prevail over the designs of those among men who are corrupted. I beseech you, never to become corrupt and to always uphold the true Islam within you and in your every deed and word. May Allah enable you to do so. Ameen. Summa Ameen, Ya Rabbal Aalameen.

I wish to all of you an Eid-ul-Adha Mubarak. May the Spirit of the Sacrifice of Hazrat Ibrahim (as), Hazrat Ismail (as) and Hazrat Hajra (ra) be forever etched in your heart and soul. Ameen.
