Bismillah-ir-Rahman-ir-Rahim

My dear daughters,
Assalaamu Alaykum Wa Rahmatullah Wa Barakaatuh.

Congratulations to you all for your special meeting this 23rd June 2019. May Allah purify your intellect and enable you to educate yourselves and all our Siraj Makin members with utmost devotion. Ameen.

Today I would like to expound on the importance of Zikrullah (Remembrance of Allah). Allah talked about the importance of His remembrance in many verses of the Holy Quran, among which, He says:

Remember Me, and I will remember you, and be thankful to Me, and be not ungrateful to Me. (2: 153).

You need to know that Zikrullah is very important in one's spiritual life. Zikrullah is the food of the soul. Remember, Allah loves us, and craves for our love also. He wants us to remember Him always, in any and every situation which may crop up in our daily life. Be it in happy days and sad days, Allah should always be in your mind, to thank Him and to ask of Him to give you the strength and courage to deal with all problems of life and to advance in spirituality, and to become a sincere and pious help for His cause.

The help of Allah is vital for the success of a cause. And the most vital of causes is the Cause of Allah. We women and girls of the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam should never forget to remember Allah and to give Him thanks and be grateful to Him.

We should always thank Allah, for everything, even if it be a problem or calamity, because Allah knows what is best for us. He guides us to unimaginable situations to gauge our faith and reaction, to see if we are really sincere towards Him and His Divine Manifestation. Many of us have lost many things in the path of Allah, but in return Allah has promised us a goodly reward, be it in this world and the hereafter.

So, you must not be discouraged. Keep up your connection with Allah through your obligatory Salat (prayers) and the voluntary prayers as well, and recite His attributes. Seek Him through His attributes.

In the beginning of the Divine Manifestation, Hazrat Khalifatullah (atba) had received revelations about the importance of the attributes of Allah and we used to study the attributes of Allah in our Study-Circles. We should know what we are saying, what we are asking of Allah. As we are not born Arab people, and Arabic is not our mother tongue, so along with Arabic, we should also know the translation in our different local languages. In Kerala, you speak Malayalam. So learn the attributes of Allah and put them into practice in your daily lives by reciting them and meditating on them. Reflect on one attribute of Allah at a time. See the greatness of Allah through His attributes.

In any situation that you may be, remember Allah, ask of Him, talk to Him. He is the Lord of all the Worlds, of all people, of all languages.

You as the chosen lady-helpers of the world in the Jamaat Ul Sahih Al Islam, you should form a solid bond with Allah so that Allah may help you in your everyday lives, and help you in your Dawa towards the other people. Remember, you should always be in Pardah and do Dawa, and reflect the true teachings of Islam wherever you are. You should keep yourselves happy inside; do not worry about the burden of the world. Say, “Hey problem, I have a Big/ Mighty God!” Put your trust in Allah and do not let go of this trust. Your bond with Allah will rely on this unbreakable trust. If the bond of trust is broken, and you leave Allah midway, then Allah shall also leave you, but if you strive in the path towards Allah, you will definitely get the mercy of Allah at the end of the tunnel of difficulties and trials.

Ours is a bright future, and this future is in our hands. Allah has entrusted to us this future, and now, it is for us to know how to bring about the positive prospects of that bright promised future. If we plant good, we shall harvest good. So, do not let go of Remembrance of Allah, and keep on doing your duties with diligence and love.

Have love for your works of Deen. Do not take it as a burden to be discharged as soon as possible. If you love Allah and His cause, and the works entailed, then Allah shall help you in this work, shall guide you and purify your intellect with the necessary knowledge to bring people towards Allah. Do not remain inactive. Be active in the path of Allah. Make the necessary efforts and Allah shall bless your efforts and bring you to the pinnacle of success in this world and the hereafter.

Insha-Allah, through your frequent Siraj Makin sessions we get to come closer and closer. Insha-Allah.

Congratulations once again. May Allah bless you all in your special meeting and keep on doing your works with love and sisterly love for one another, all for the sake of Allah. Insha-Allah.

Assalaamu Alaykum Wa Rahmatullah Wa Barakaatuh.
